

OAXACA

September 25–October 2, 2024

A craft lover's dream!

One of the most culturally rich places in Mexico, Oaxaca is known for its long tradition of producing world-class crafts, mezcal, mole, and chocolate - all of which we will explore during this week-long adventure! Join GAS as we take an in-depth look at all the historical, cultural, and gastronomical delights that Oaxaca has to offer.

And to satisfy our more glassy side, we will visit local studios and explore environmentally friendly practices being pioneered in Oaxaca, enjoy hands-on activities, and get a personal tour of the exhibition at Centro Cultural San Pablo during the second Bienal Internacional de Arte en Vidrio de Iberoamérica!

GAS Members:

US $3,597 per person double occupancy

US $4,542 per person single occupancy

Non-Members:

US $3,957 per person double occupancy

US $4,996 per person single occupancy

Price includes tour, city travel, hotel, lunches, dinners, and a $300 tax-deductible donation to GAS to cover administrative fees.

Airfare is not included.

Tour highlights include:

- Trips to the Museo Textil de Oaxaca, the Centro de las Artes San Agustin, and other local museums to explore the local craft community.
- A visit to Monte Albán ruins—one of the most important archaeological sites in Mexico that offers unique views of the city of Oaxaca.
- An excursion to Teotitlán del Valle, a village whose tradition of producing high-quality woven goods dates back to ancient times.
- A tour one of the local agave plantations to get a behind-the-scenes look at how mezcal is produced.
- A visit to Studio Xaquixe where we will learn more about their sustainable practice and enjoy a delicious meal prepared in ovens using the same process they are pioneering to make glass.
- And plenty of free time to explore the numerous hidden gems of the city!

BOOK HERE

For more information, contact Julie Thompson at julie@glassart.org